You are probably curious how the Polish Zloty was created.
The zloty was introduced into circulation on April 29, 1924, as a result of the monetary reform carried out by the Minister of Finance, Władysław Grabski.

How was Polish money created?

Good Morning I would like to buy a Sonic speaker for 250 zlotych.

Good Mornig, alright. Before you will buy them, I must first check whether the banknot is real.

Why this women check the authenticity of money?

Because in Poland fraud is very popular, when we get home I will show you how to check money is authenticity.

How to recognize fake money?

Angular effect
depending on the angle of view, on the right side of the portrait of the ruler you can see a crown or "500", on the left the word and numerical designation of the denomination plus the NBP

security thread

micro prints
small inscriptions on both sides of the banknote

watermark
When you look at the banknote against the light, you can see the image of the ruler and the digital designation of the banknote "500"

markings visible under UV light in UV rays you can see a square with the numerical markings "500" and "zł"

Angle Effect

Straight-Back
There are elements on both sides of the banknote that complement each other under the light

Optical Change Paint
The Rosette goes from gold to green as the viewing angle changes

1: Watermark area (left side)
2: Security thread (top center)
3: NBP logo and text (top left)
4: Micro print area (top right)

Collectibles banknotes

Collector banknotes are paper money that are produced with collectors in mind. They are produced on the occasion of important events or commemorate outstanding figures, authorities and their role in the history of Polish and Poles. The first Polish collector's banknote was issued by the National Bank of Polish in 2006.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO HAVE YOUR OWN CURRENCY IN THE COUNTRY?

Having your own currency can help you achieve your national economic goals. It can be useful in responding to crisis situations and also protects citizens from the problems that may arise from the need to use foreign currencies hey! How much money did you take for shopping today

Hey, I didn't take the money because I don't need them when I have the card

Why is it good to always have cash with you?

Having cash is good when there is no reception in the store, the seller does not have a terminal, the phone may not work for us.

Thank You!
